

Publish Your Poem!

Would you like to see your poem published in a special Ablaze poetry book?

Yes? Then what you have to do is....

- Compose a poem about 'Water' - you could write about conserving water, the water cycle, rain, rivers, playing in the sea or splashing in the bath!
- Type up your poem*, making sure to include your Name, Year Group & School, then email or send electronically to your Class Teacher or School Office as soon as possible. Alternatively, you can enter via our website at <https://ablazebristol.org/poetry2019-20> (click on the purple button underneath the Competition Rules and Guidance to email us your poem).
- Full terms and conditions can be found at <https://ablazebristol.org/poetry2019-20>

Final closing date for entries to be submitted:

Friday 14th February 2020

The best poems will be published in our 2020 Poetry Book, with prizes for the winner of each age category!

So what are you waiting for?
Start composing!

*Due to the high number of entries, we are unfortunately unable to accept handwritten poems. Please send your poem in one of the following file formats: .doc, .docx, .odt or .txt.

Ablaze is very grateful to Bristol Water and Intellect Books for supporting the 2019/20 Poetry Competition. For more information about Ablaze visit www.ablazebristol.org
