

Publish Your Poem!

Would you like to see your poem published in a special Ablaze poetry book?

Yes? Then what you have to do is...

- Compose a poem about 'Happiness' - you could write about what happiness means to you, or about the people, places or things that make you happy!
- Type up your poem*, making sure to include your Name, Year Group & School, then email or send electronically to your Class Teacher or School Office as soon as possible.
- Full terms and conditions can be found at <https://ablazebristol.org/poetry2020-21>

Final closing date for entries to be submitted:

Friday 12th February 2021

The best poems will be published in our 2021 Poetry Book, with prizes for the winner of each age category!

So what are you waiting for?

Start composing!

*Due to the high number of entries, we are unfortunately unable to accept handwritten poems. Please send your poem in one of the following file formats: .doc, .docx, .odt or .txt.
